Description

In its 50-year history, UNLV has undergone an amazing transformation from a small branch college into a thriving urban research institution of 28,000 students and 3,300 faculty and staff. Along the way, the urban land-grant university has become a dynamic resource for one of the country's fastest-growing and most enterprising cities. UNLV's 350-acre main campus, located on the Southern tip of Nevada in a desert valley surrounded by mountains, is home to more than 220 undergraduate, master's, and doctoral degree programs, all accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities.

Dedicated to Diversity

It is imperative that our university reflects the community that we serve. Diversity makes our university vibrant and more responsive to the needs of our students and community. At UNLV, we are committed to providing an inclusive and humane environment where all individuals feel valued, respected, and affirmed.
