Emory University, a top-ranked private institution recognized internationally for its outstanding liberal arts colleges, graduate and professional schools, and one of the world's leading healthcare systems, is located on a beautiful campus in Atlanta, Georgia's historic Druid Hills neighborhood. Whatever your interest in Emory, we would welcome your visit to campus.

Emory maintains an uncommon balance for an institution of its standing: our scholars and experts generate $734 million in research funding annually while also maintaining a traditional emphasis on teaching. The University is enriched by collaboration among its schools, centers, and partners as well as by the legacy and energy of Atlanta.

In the classroom, in the lab, at a patient's bedside, or helping a remote community half a world away, Emory is about impact. Through a dynamic new digital interface, view Emory's Impact Report.

Emory's main campus, selected by The Best Colleges as one of the top ten "most amazing college campuses," is located in the suburban Atlanta neighborhood of Druid Hills. Please browse our Campus Tours page to see videos and images of the notable architecture and green spaces to enjoy here.

The campus is about a 15-minute drive from the downtown, Midtown and Buckhead areas. Plan on at least 30 minutes by car from Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport. MARTA, Atlanta's mass transit system, operates regular bus service from several train stations near campus.

Emory encourages the use of alternative transportation, and operates an on-campus shuttle system called Cliff. Campus parking is tight, and regulations are strictly enforced. Visitor parking lots are designated in convenient locations. Please contact the Office of Accessibility Services to arrange accommodations before your visit at 404.727.9877.

Emory encourages prospective students to visit campus and discover if the university is the right fit for them.

Contact the admission office of the individual schools directly to ask about campus tours, information sessions and potential opportunities to talk with professors, coaches and student
